

Friends of the Ridgefield Library Inc. is a group of local citizens volunteering to help the Library by providing services that cannot be provided for by the Library's present budget.

Our organization is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit allowing donors to make tax deductible donations. In addition, our nonprofit status allows donors to double their impact by taking advantage of their employer's Corporate Matching Gift Programs, if offered.

Friends of the Ridgefield Library Inc. respectfully request that you consider making a monetary donation that will assist us in funding adult & children's programs, scholarships, books, and more.

Thank you for your support.
